Subject: [CADI] Shasta Co. obit, Capt. Henry Bosenko, d. 4 Jan 1883
Date: Tue, 8 Jul 2003 14:03:41 -0700 (PDT)

Weekly Shasta Courier
6 Jan 1883

Captain Henry Bosenko died at the residence of Jacob Forster, Cottonwood, last Thursday morning at 3 o'clock, at the age of 54 years. The deceased was stricken with apoplexy about two weeks ago and retained his reason until the day before his death. He was a thoroughly good man respected by all. His wife and fourt children have the sympathy of the entire community.

Weekly Shasta Courier
13 Jan 1883

The funeral of Captain Henry Bosenko whose death we have heretofore recorded, took place at Red Bluff, under the auspices of Lodge No. 76, I. O. O. F. on the 5th instant, and was very largely attended. The Capt. was an honored citizen, an honest and neighborly man, and one whose loss is severely felt by all, and especially by the devoted wife and children of whom he thought so much and loved so well.

Through the medium of this paper Mrs. Bosenko hereby tenders her hearfelt thanks to relatives and friends for the kindness and attention extended in the time of sickness and misfortune.

Mrs Boscnko Buried

Mrs. Adelaide Boscnko was buried by the side of her late husband, Capt. H. Boscnko, in Oak Hill cemetery on Monday afternoon. The remains arrived here at noon and were taken to the Catholic church, where services were held, after which a large procession followed the remains to the grave.

Mrs. Boscnko was a very prominent woman of Cottonwood. She was the daughter of Mrs. Jacob Foster, who died a few months ago, and the sister of John H., Jos. A. and Charlie Foster and the mother of Mrs. F. Klemmer of Redding, and Henry, Willie and Clifford Boscnko of Cotonwood. She was afflicted with a tumor on the face which worked into the brain and caused death, which occured on Saturday last. Many of her neighbors from Cottonwood were present.

Hi Fayth -

Sorry it took me so long to answer you. We were out of town for a week until late last night.

I have a certificate that shows Ramona's mother as Adeline Bosenko (with an e). This was filled out by Fred.

On the tombstone, it says "Adda Rose" 1873-1938. Is this the same Addie?

I have information on Ramona Klemmer. She was born 31 July 1899, and died 04 December, 1917. She is buried in Redding Memorial Park in Redding, CA. I have more if you want to e-mail me direct.

Her father was my grandmother's first cousin. How are you related to the family?

CREATIVE DRAMA FOR CHILDREN

The University of Wisconsin-Madison's THEATRE AND EDUCATION PROGRAM presents CREATIVE DRAMA FOR CHILDREN-- a series of free workshops sponsored by the Department of Theatre and Drama and the Department of Curriculum and Instruction. The workshops are taught by university students and supervised Theatre and Drama Department faculty. Workshops will be process rather than product-oriented; emphasis is placed on developing group interaction skills, improving self image, exploring communication skills, as well as exploring techniques of problem solving, story building, creative movement, characterization, and concentration. We welcome your child's participation!

GRADE LEVELS: Kindergarten through 5th grade only.
CLASS SIZE: Maximum of 16 students per class.
COST: FREE!!! The Workshops are offered as a public service.

CLASS DATES AND TIMES

K - 1	Wednesdays:	October 5 - November 30	4:00 - 5:00 p.m.
1 - 2	Saturdays:	October 10 - December 5	11:00 a.m. - 12 noon

Three Mothers Buried on Tuesday Afternoon

The burial of three mothers on the day following Christmas day is not a pleasant matter to record. Such an occurrence took place in this city on Tuesday afternoon, but each of the victims to the grim monster was a resident of the neighborhood of Cottonwood creek.

Mrs. Adaline Forster died at her home in the town of Cottonwood on Sunday. She was the wife of Jacob Forster, who for years conducted a very popular hotel in that place, and whose success in business was materially aided by the tireless efforts of his wife. At the time of her death Mrs. Forster was 71 years of age, her last birthday being on November 2d. She was married to Mr. Forster in St. Louis, Mo., when she was 21, and immediately the young couple came to California and settled at the old town of Shasta. In 1853 they removed to Cottonwood, and there Mrs. Forster spent the remainder of her days.

Mrs. Forster was a woman whom everyone loved who knew her. She had all the virtues of a good wife and housekeeper and was more than true to her many friends. Nearly every family in Cottonwood was represented in the funeral which took place here at noon on Monday, the same being conducted by Rev. Father McGrath of the Catholic church. She leaves three sons and a daughter, all well-known citizens, besides seventeen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. The sons are John and Charles of Igerna, and Joe of Biggs, and the daughter, Mrs. Boscuko of Cottonwood.

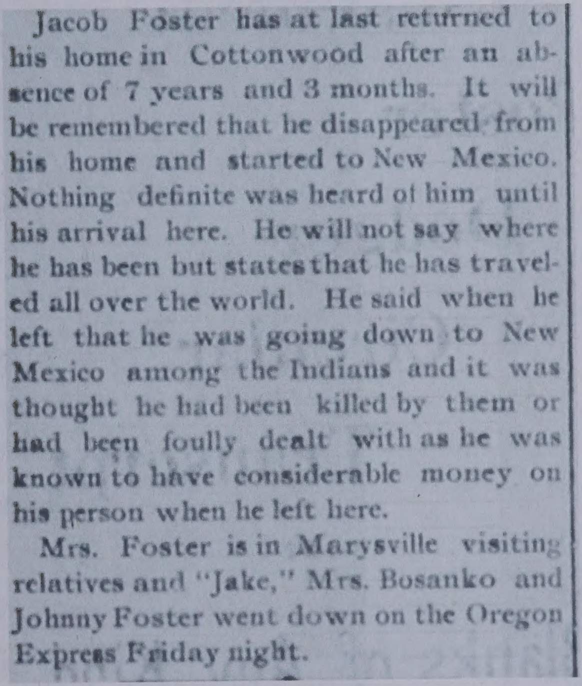
He Has Returned



Jacob Foster has at last returned to his home in Cottonwood after an absence of 7 years and 3 months. It will be remembered that he disappeared from his home and started to New Mexico. Nothing definite was heard of him until his arrival here. He will not say where he has been but states that he has traveled all over the world. He said when he left that he was going down to New Mexico among the Indians and it was thought he had been killed by them or had been foully dealt with as he was known to have considerable money on his person when he left here.

Mrs. Foster is in Marysville visiting relatives and "Jake," Mrs. Bosanko and Johnny Foster went down on the Oregon Express Friday night.

Jacob Foster's Will Explained

Explanation of Jacob Foster's Last Will & Testament

Added by paulfoster31 on 25 Feb 2009

The original Last Will & Testament of Jacob Foster is located in the archives of the Tarrant County Clerk's Office in Fort Worth Texas. The most important part of the Will states that if Jacob Foster's Texas family, his second wife Ida and their son Jacob, should preceed him in death, then his estate, valued at $4000, was to go to the children of his deceased daughter, Mary (Foster) Hatch, in Shasta County, California. This proves without a doubt that he is our kin. Mary Foster was the daughter of Jacob and Adeline Foster during his first marriage. Mary Foster married J. R. Hatch on March 10, 1872. They had at least five children named Henry, Joseph, Lide, Ruth and Josephine. Mary was born April 27, 1853 and died on June 8, 1890. She was only 37-years-old at the time of her death. Jacob's Will was written and dated Nov. 19, 1900 and it states that his daughter Mary was deceased, providing further proof of authenticity because she had died approximately 10 years before Jacob's Will was written. Mary's husband J. R. Hatch was born Nov. 28, 1837 and died on Dec. 19, 1902. Both he and Mary are buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery in Red Bluff, California. Their graves are located in Block J along with other relatives of ours including Jacob and Adeline's son John Henry Foster and his wife Anna Philipina Reiser Foster, our great grandparents.

Jacob Foster died in Tarrant County, Fort Worth, Texas on August 10, 1901. His death occurred only about nine months after his Will was written. It seems to me that he might have had some sort of sense of his impending death. He might have been in ill health for some time. Jacob's Will states that he was "about 70" at the time of his death. I believe he was older than that. The 1900 U. S. Federal Census indicates he was 74, one year before his death. That would approximately match other census and Shasta County records indicating he was born on August 25, 1828. His exact birth date may never be known, but I believe he was 73 to 75 at the time of his death.

Jacob's wife Ida was 39 at the time of his death and they had a 5-year-old son named Jacob John Foster. Jacob junior was drafted into WW! and survived. The 1920 census indicates that he was 24 and his mother was 58 at the time. They were the only members of the household. I don't think Ida ever remarried, but I can' t say for sure. I do believe Jacob junior was eventually married to a woman named Agnes and they too had a son named Jacob John Foster. He would have been born in 1922 or 1923 and would be 86-87 today, if he were still alive. I have not been able to track him down or any living descendants of the Texas Fosters, but I'm working on it!

It might be interesting to family members how I found Jacob's final resting place. You will recall that there was a series of four articles written in February, April, June and July in the 1886 Weekly Shasta Courier, in which the family had grown increasingly worried about Jacob's well being because he had not returned from a trip "prospecting for new stock ranges" in Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado in the fall of 1885. The final newspaper article was even printed as his obituary and stated that his son J. A. (Joseph Arthur) Foster had returned from looking for him in Mexico to report that there left "little doubt" but that he was murdered near El Paso, Texas. The incentive to his murder was the $8000 he reportedly had with him. That should have been the end to ol' Jake Foster, but it wasn't!

Another Shasta Courier article came to my attention after our reunion in Redding last summer. Linda Thompson had located it in the Anderson Museum and had put it in a packet of information she gave me at the reunion. I didn't have time to read it until a couple of weeks later. It was dated April 1, 1893, seven years after Jacob's obituary was printed, and the article said that Jake Foster had dropped by the newspaper office for a social visit, that he and the writer had spent several hours catching up after many years, that he had not aged harshly, and that he was leaving in a few days for Fort Worth, Texas where he had a "large ranch and stock interests." Linda told me she did not think this was probably the same Jacob Foster referred to in the previous 1886 articles, but put it in the packet anyway. I have always thought that Jacob was personal friends with the Weekly Shasta Courier editor. I sensed that personal connection between the two men in both the 1886 articles and the last one written in 1893. That got my investigative instincts going again and I contacted the Fort Worth Genealogical and Historical Society. One thing led to another and I located an old probate document written in his name. I also checked the 1900 federal census for his name in Tarrant County, Fort Worth, Texas. A Jacob Foster popped up on Ancestry.com and the census stated he was 74, his wife Ida was 38, and that they had a son named Jacob, age 4. It also said they had been married 16 years, since about 1884, which would be a fit in between the years he sold the Foster Hotel in 1883 and took off for Texas in 1885. I might add that it never made sense to me that a man of Jacob's intelligence and business savvy would take $8000 cash to El Paso, one of the last truely lawless areas in the country, and get murdered in the process. And the rest, as they say, is history!

Jacob's original Last Will & Testament can be located in the Old Probate documents files at the Tarrant County Clerk's Office, 100 West Weatherford, Room 165, Fort Worth, Texas, 76196. The document number is 2098 under the name of Jacob Foster.

- Confirm self-testing results or blood test results by the doctor
- Judge whether a treatment plan is working
- Show you how healthy choices can make a difference in diabetes control.

Test Limit

Although the A1C test is an important tool, it can't replace daily self-testing of blood glucose. A1C tests don't measure your day-to-day control. You can't adjust your insulin on the basis of your A1C tests. That's why your blood sugar checks and your log results are so important to staying in effective control.

It is important to know that different labs measure A1C levels in different ways. If you sent one sample of your blood to four different labs, you might get back four different test results.

For example, an 8 at one lab might mean that blood glucose levels have been in the near-normal range. At a second lab, a 9 might be a sign that, on average, blood glucose was high. This doesn't mean that any of the results are wrong. It does mean that what your results say depends on the way the lab does the test.

Talk to your doctor about your A1C test results. Know that if you change doctors or your doctor changes labs, your test numbers may need to be "read" differently.

The A1C test alone is not enough to measure good blood sugar control. But it is good resource to use along with your daily blood sugar checks, to work for the best possible control.

☐ Fwd: Foster Family History Timeline (1)

dcfoster2... Message 1 of 1 , 15 Feb, 2009

This is a wonderful timeline, that Ernie compiled, of the births, marriages, special events and deaths of our ancestors in the Foster line starting with Jacob Forster forward to about 1909. He has pulled together so much valuable information. If you can take a little (or more) time to read through it, you will get familiar with those who came before and feel more connected as we prepare for the reunion this summer. I'm sure that Ernie would love to get your feedback too.

Love Dad and Mom

FOSTER FAMLY HISTORY TIMELINE
1826-Jacob Forster, son of Martin, born in Bavaria Germany, whch coincides with the 1900 U.S. Federal Census indicating he was 74-years-old. I have seen other references that Jacob might have been born on August 25, 1828. We may never know his exact birth date.
1829-Adeline Hartung (maybe Hertling) born in Germany. Exact date not known. Jacob's brother Johannis (John) born in Germany. Exact date not known. Cottonwood cemetery records indicate Johannis was born in 1829.
1845-Jacob Foster immigrates to America. Records indicate he was a merchant in St. Louis, MO prior to moving to California.
1845-1849 Jacob and Adeline are married. We don't know the marriage date. They may have gotten married after Jacob returned to St. Louis from California on his first trip out west.
1849/1850-Jacob, and probably with his brother Johannis, rode horseback to California. Other references indicate that Johannis might have followed Jacob to Califoria in 1855.
1851/1852-Jacob returned to St. Louis. He and Adeline have their first child named Adeline born December 31, 1852.
1853-Jacob and Adeline return to California with their daughter Adeline. We don't know if they traveled overland or by ship around the horn. Records indicate another child named David may have died enroute to California. NOTE: Their are discrepancies in various records regarding exactly when Jacob and Adeline got married, what year he came first to California, when he returned to St. Louis, and when he made the final journey to California. We DO KNOW that all these events took place between the years 1849 and 1853.

1854-Mary Foster born April 27, 1854 in California. Second child and daughter born to Jacob and Adeline.

1855-We know little of what Jacob did for a living during the 1850's. His brother was a teamster and drove horse-drawn wagons loaded with goods for mining, timber, etc. Both brothers may have tried their hand at gold mining.

1857-John Henry Foster born August 30, 1857 in California. First son born to Jacob and Adeline.

1858-Jacob and Adeline settled in Cottonwood with their three children. They lived in a cabin owned by Issac and Rebecca Boggs.

1859-Charles A. Foster born February 9, 1859. Second son and fourth child born to Jacob and Adeline. Jacob purchased the cabin and 160 acres from Issac Boggs September 6, 1859 for $1600. Jacob also owned an additional 335 acres of farmland. The Boggs and Jacob's family were the first known settlers on the north side of Cottonwood Creek in the Cottonwood area.

1860-Joseph Arthur Foster born Septmber 27, 1860. Third son and fifth and final child born to Jacob and Adeline. Joyce Davis, age 84 and living in Firebaugh, CA, is Joseph's granddaughter.

1861-Construction begins on the Forster Hotel after 40 additional acres of land are acquired by Jacob through a land grant issued by the U.S. Land Office in Marysville, California on January 18, 1861. NOTE: Joyce Davis has the original document in her posession. It has President Buchanan's signature with a red seal. The original town of Cottonwood stood on these 40 acres.

1862-Construction continues on the Forster Hotel. NOTE: Please read pages 164-166 from Myrtle McNamar's book 'Way Back When' regarding the Forster Hotel. It was considered one of the finest hotels of it's time in northern California.

1863-The Forster Hotel opens for business with Jacob's brother Johannis (John) it's first prorietor. John's daughter Anna, age 7, also came to live in the hotel with her father. A Mrs. Adeline Ludwig Gilman stated that she was born in the Forster hotel in 1863. Jacob also built and owned a first-class livery stable and barn adjacent to the hotel.

1869-Transcontinental rail line completed, culminating in San Franscisco. Central Pacific Railroad begins building lines north from Sacamento. The Forster Hotel business thrives between 1863 and 1871 with weary stagecoach passengers traveling the California-Oregon Trail.

1872-Central Pacific Railroad construction reaches Cottonwood with over 1000 workers, mainly Chinese. Jacob Foster was in competition with land owner J.A. Brown. Jacob's land was on the north side of Cottonwood creek and Mr. Brown's land was on the south side of the creek. Jacob won the day on January 17,1872 when he deeded the Central Pacific RR a 100 foot strip of land with the proviso that they build the "station house" or depot adjacent to the Forster Hotel. The CPRR complied. The depot was built during the year and Jacob's son, John Henry Foster became the first train dispatcher in Shasta county. His brother Charles A. Foster was the first Wells Fargo Express agent in Shasta county.
The first "for pay" train arrives in Cottonwood from Sacramento in June, 1872. John Henry Foster is listed in Shasta county records as an agent for the Central Pacific RR, Western Union and Wells Fargo. Jacob Foster became postmaster September 20, 1872 at the Foster Tavern located in the Foster Hotel. This was twenty days after the first passenger train pulled into Cottonwood on its way to Redding. Jacob and Adeline's daughter Mary Foster is married to J. R. Hatch March 6, 1872.

1873-Adeline (Jr.) Foster married Captain Henry Bosenko February 9, 1873. She was 21 and he was 40 when they married.

1874-Jacob Foster begins to sell lots in the early 1870's from his 1861 forty acre pre-emption and land grant. He sold a piece of land across the street from his hotel to William Knowlton. .

1875-Oak Knoll School in Cottonwood established. Jacob Foster deeded land to the distict and was one of the school's first trustees.

1876-Jacob Foster sold a strip of land 150 feet wide to Adam Schuman and W.F. Price.

1880-Becker & Foster merchantile business established sometime between 1880 and 1883. Charles J. Becker and John Henry Foster built a large, one room, frame store building on lots 15 and 16 of Block A. They engaged in general merchandise business, including grain, shakes and other building materials. Jacob Foster continued to own and Jacob Foster continued to own and operate the Foster Hotel and a prosprous farm in 1880. 150 acres were under cultivation and livestock included 100 hogs, 75 head of cattle, and 25 horses.

1882-John Henry Foster marries Anna Philopenna Reiser February 6, 1882. Central Pacific RR acerage is sold to Charles Crocker on December 20, 1882. He immediately laid out a town site west of the train depot. This was called "The Railroad Addition to the Town of Cottonwood." About half of this Railroad Addition fell within the limits of the Jacob Foster 1861 pre-emption land, which became know as the "Foster Addition." The "Foster Addition" was mapped as the Original town of Cottonwood.

1883-Adeline (Jr.) Foster's husband, Captain Henry Bosenko, age 54, dies January 4, 1883 at the home of Jacob and Adeline Foster. Ellis Jacob Foster, first child and son of John Henry Foster, was born April 7, 1883. Jacob Foster and Peter Reifenrath form a partnership in the remaining acreage of Jacob's pre-emption as well as land to the south. They sold a square on the north side of present day Front street to George H. Butterway. The town has yet to be surveyed and all lots are sold by footage with lots measured by just any person's tape. Jacob Foster sells the Foster Hotel to Peter Reifenrath.

1884-The 1900 U.S. Federal Census indicates that this is the year Jacob Foster married his second wife Ida.

1885-John Henry Foster's second son, Joseph Albin Foster, born 1885. The Foster Hotel, under the ownership of Peter Reifenrath, is completely destroyed by fire on April 10, 1885. It was never rebuilt. Peter Reiferath died 14 days later. . Marion Griffin begins to make a plat of and have surveyed the Railroad and Foster Additions in order to officially establish the Town of Cottonwood.

1886-The map of the Original Town of Cottonwood was filed in the Shasta County Recorder's office, by Maron Griffin on October 15, 1886. If Jacob Foster, Peter Reifenrath and G.H. Butterway can be called the "Fathers" of what was then the loose slung village of Cottonwood, then Marion Griffin can considered the "dutiful son" who came along and set the town in order.A series of four articles written in February, April, June and July in the 1886 Weekly Shasta Courier, in which the family had grown increasingly worried about Jacob's well being because he had not returned from a trip "prospecting for new stock ranges" in Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado in the fall of 1885. The final newspaper article was even printed as his obituary and stated that his son J. A. (Joseph Arthur) Foster had returned from looking for him in Mexico to report that there "little doubt" but that he was murdered near El Paso, Texas. The incentive to his murder was the $8000 he reportedly had with him. Reports of Jacob Foster's death proved to be inaccurate.

1887-Jacob and Adeline's son, Joseph Arthur Foster, marries Edith Paxton Cook March 23, 1887.

1888-Jacob and Adeline's son, Charles A. Foster, marries Laura Britton July 13, 1888.

1889-John Henry Foster's daughter Carrie born 1889

1890-Mary Foster-Hatch dies June 8, 1890 at age 36.

1892-John Henry Foster's third son, John Robert Foster, born July 4, 1892.

1893-A Weekly Shasta Courier article dated April 1, 1893 indicated that Jacob Foster had dropped into the newspaper for a visit and that he was leaving in a few days for Fort Worth, Texas where he had a "large ranch and stock interests."

1894-Becker & Foster partnership dissolved. John Henry Foster leaves Cottonwood and moves to Siskiyou county. He was a railroad dispatcher in Yreka for a perod of time.

1895-John Henry Foster's fourth son, James Bishop Foster, born Oct. 18, 1895. James daughter, Phyllis Foster-Parker, lives in Durham, NC.

1896-Jacob Foster's son, Jacob John Foster, by his second wife Ida is born in 1896.

1897-John Henry Foster's daughter, Adeline Wilhelmina Foster, born October 31, 1897 and died December 17, 1897 at the age of one month and 18 days.

1898-John Henry Foster's fifth son, Charles Herman Foster Sr. (Paul Foster's grandfather), born in Ager, CA August 27, 1898. Charles is the last child born to John Henry Foster and is wife Anna Philopena Reiser.

1899-Jacob Foster's first wife Adeline dies December 25, 1899.

1900-Jacob Foster's Last Will & Testament written November 16, 1900. The 1900 U.S. Federal Census indicates Jacob was

ADELINE

FORSTER HOTEL: A photograph dating from about 1880 includes Jacob and Adeline Forster, in black formal wear nearest the horses, as well as Johannis Forster, on porch, and his wife, Mary, who operated the hotel for many years, standing with the children.

More than 100 descendants of Jacob and Adeline Forster, founders of Cottonwood, will gather from across the continent this weekend to witness their forebearers addition to Shasta Historical Society's exclusive Pioneer Plaque program.

Some family members have never met face to face; they have merely spoken to each other via phone or traded emails as each branch of the family tree was linked through research to the main trunk, explained Paul Foster of Sedona, Ariz., a great-great-grandson of Jacob and Adeline Forster and the driving force behind the family gathering.

Early on in its history, family members in America dropped the R from Forster, a Bavarian variation, to adopt the more common spelling, said Foster, 58, a fifth-generation descendent of the couple who built the two story Forster Hotel in Cottonwood in 1861 or 1862 and later enticed the Central Pacific Rail Road Company to build its depot and passenger station near the hotel on Jacob Forster's 40-acre homestead and ranch.

Cottonwood quickly grew up around the two businesses as the southern gateway to Shasta County, recounts Foster in a 73-page book on the family's colorful history.

Jacob Forster's brother, Johannis (John) and sister-in-law, Mary, operated the hotel and Jacob's son, John H. Foster, became the town's first train dispatcher, Paul Foster recounts. A grandson, Ellis Foster, entered into the butter making business and sold iced cream and butter from the basement of the former John Foster home east of the railroad tracks and south of the depot for many years, the budding historian said.

The Pioneer Plaque program encourages present-day descendants to honor their ancestors with a memorial contribution, an exhibit of family artifacts and a reception hosted by society members, explained Nola Shoup, who chairs the program committee.

To qualify, each family must do its own research to establish that their relatives were indeed residents of Shasta County more than 80 years ago. Currently, the historical society lists more than 250 names on its Pioneer Plaque display wall with new names joining the list about every six months, explained Lola Schwartz, who helps provide each honored family with refreshments.

The 2 p.m. Saturday ceremony marks nearly a solid year of almost constant research by Paul Foster, assisted in varying degree by hundreds of other family members who shared individual pieces of the puzzle, he said.

"It all started about six years ago when I was taking care of my parents and I started to clean out the closet of the bedroom I had in high school. I found a Masonic sword that my grandfather had given me that summer between high school and college. I had placed the sword at the back of the rather large closet and forgotten about it for 33 years," recounts Foster.

A flood of memories spurred on by two other family heirlooms - Jacob Forster's 1851 Navy Colt 36 caliber revolver purchased in St. Louis, Mo., prior to his second trip west to California in 1852 and an 1891 book on Northern California history containing a biographical sketch of Jacob's oldest son, John Henry Foster - nearly overwhelmed Paul Foster, who started researching his family's history in greater detail.

"It struck me that the gun, the book and the sword needed to be kept together and placed on display where people who understood their significance could appreciate them.

During the next several years, from 2005 to 2008, he traveled to Shasta County several times to meet with local historian Dottie Smith, who in turn introduced him to the local historical society.

"I was wonderfully overwhelmed with the society's records of our Foster family history, but I held on to everything as I waited to see whether the community of Cottonwood could put together a museum," Foster said.

Finally, almost a year ago on Aug. 23, 2008, Foster called a family reunion at Anderson River Park to launch an all-out effort to link as many members of the family involved as possible.

"Grasping the totality of a life is nearly an impossible task, even among the living," Foster wrote in the forward of the family's seven generation geneology that was designed and laid out by Foster's cousin, Lisa Bradley, of Santa Barbara.

The book project has consumed the lives of Foster and Bradley, who have spent hours and hours on the telephone, traded countless emails and swapped hundreds of photographs sent in by family members, said Bradley, 46, a self-proclaimed graphic artist.

"It's been a great adventure. The more I have dug into the family history, the more amazing it becomes. Seeing the names acquire faces in old photographs, and then watching those faces come to life as we connect those images with the stories of the things they did, encountered or lived through - these are now real people to me and I hope to others who read the book," Bradley said.

"What a world we live in, having the capabilities of the internet. What an incredible tool it has been for bridging the past and building the future with people we have never met or hope to meet.

There's a wealth of information to discover right at our fingertips. A little curiosity and diligence goes a long way - in this case - towards creating a bond that will forever be a part of who we are and a heritage to pass on for generations to come," Lisa Bradley writes in an email to the Valley Post regarding the year-long research project.

Birth:	Mar. 24, 1875 California, USA
Death:	Dec. 1, 1946

The pioneer Bosenko family were mainly sheepmen. Buried here is Henry Charles Bosenko and his wife Ella. Henry was the son of Captain H. Bosenko of Cottonwood, a sheepman. Another Bosenko family member owned a hotel/rooming house on Main Street in Cottonwood for a number of years. It stood on the north side of where Roger's Frosty is located until it was demolished to make way for the gas station that's located there now. The majority of the Bosenko clan lived in Tehama County where they raised sheep. Today, the old family ranch still exists in Tehama County but is no longer ranched by the Bosenko's, instead, it is leased out to others.

PATRICIA L. GARRIOTT

Graveside services were held Tuesday, January 14, 1997 at 2:00 p.m. at the Gridley-Biggs Cemetery for Patricia L. Garriott, 75, of Biggs, CA. She died Friday, January 10, 1997 at Biggs-Gridley Memorial Hospital of natural causes.

She was born February 10, 1921 in Section 6, Glenn County, CA to Herbert and Winona Pierce. She was a resident of Butte County since 1944. Her parents were rice farmers; her mother was known as "Caterpillar Kate". Patricia grew up farming rice and she continued farming rice for most of her life. She loved the outdoors, farming, her flowers and hunting and fishing with her husband. She was married on August 6, 1949 in Reno, Nevada to Charles Garriott.

She is survived by her husband, Charles Garriott of Biggs, CA; a son, Richard Bosenko of Los Altos, CA; a daughter, Mari (Bosenko) Lair of Coalinga, CA; and a brother, Herbert L. Pierce of Chico, CA. She is also survived by five grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Interment was at the Gridley-Biggs Cemetery.

Arrangements were under the direction of Gridley-Block Funeral Chapel in Gridley, CA.

Albany Man Kills Foe to Avenge Wife

November 16, 1926, Richmond, California

From OAKLAND TRIBUNE, NOVEMBER 16, 1926

ALBANY MAN KILLS FOE TO AVENGE WIFE

Richmond toiler shot dead at oil plant by young husband after months of brooking over twitting "I lost good job over you," says slayer. Then fires: Victim leaves a widow and two children

A young husband and father, enraged under the lash of jests about his domestic affairs, today sought retaliation with a revolver.

Clifford J. Bosanko, 42, employee of the Standard Oil Company's plat at Richmond is dead and Donald L. Streeter, 24, former employee of the same plant, is in the Contra Costa county jail at Martinex, charged with Bosanko's murder.

The fatal shooting occurred at 8:10 o'clock in the morning in the yard of the Standard Oil refinery at Richmond. Streeter, who quit his job at the plant in September, 1925, because of the taunts of fellow workers, slipped through the gates this morning, and edging up to Bosanko, was heard to say: "I lost a good job over you."

Pressing a revolver against Bosanko, he fired. The bullet entered Bosanko's back, lodging in the abdomen. the victim died in route to the company's emergency hospital.

Streeter made no attempt to fire another shot and immediately surrendered. To Captain B.V. Shirley of the Richmond Police he confessed he had shot Bosanko.

BROODING OVER TAUNTS BARED

Months of brooding over the insults he felt he had received from Bosanko preceeded Streeter's action today. A Brother-in-law, James Hudson, who resides with the Streeters at 928 Adams Street, Albany, declared that Streeter was unusually sensative and had long desired to retaliate for Bosanko's joking about Mrs. Streeter.

Mrs Florence Streeter, the wife, had never met Bosanko. So far as Hudson knows, Bosanko had never seen Mrs. Streeter nor the two Streeter children, Bobbie, 2 years old, and Jimmie, 2 months old.

"I'm going to get that fellow," Streeter is reported by Hudson to have said this morning. Hudson tried to dissuade Streeter from acting rashly, but Streeter left for Richmond.

At three different times, Streeter had been employed at the Richmond oil plant, the last time leaving because he could not stand the constant twitting from other workers, in which Bosanko is said to have taken a leading part. He has since been employed at a Berkley soap plant.

Bosanko had been employed by the Standard Oil Company for ten years and worked in the refined filling department of the Richmond plant.

The Bosanko home is at 427 South Thirty-seventh Street, Richmond. He is survived by Mrs. Bosanko and two children, Wallace, 12 and Leland, 11.

Original data: United States of America, Bureau of the Census. Fifteenth Census of the United States, 1930. Washington, D.C.: National Archives and Records Administration, 1930. T626, 2,667 rolls.

Description:
Containing records for approximately 123 million Americans, the 1930 United States Federal Census is the largest census released to date and is the most recent census available for public access. The census gives us a glimpse into the lives of Americans in 1930, and contains information about a household's family members and occupants including: birthplaces, occupations, immigration, citizenship, and military service. The names of those listed in the census are linked to actual images of the 1930 Census.

Bridge crosses to other side

Car hits truss, brings demise of structure

Alex Breitler
Record Searchlight

RED BLUFF — When floodwaters swept over a narrow, one-lane bridge years ago, most of the crossing — now 106 years old — stood firm.

And under the weight of the 700 cars that passed overhead each day, the rusted steel truss bridge southwest of Red Bluff stayed intact — though neighbors say it swayed a bit each time they crossed.

In the end, it wasn't a natural disaster or everyday wear and tear that destroyed the Red Bank Creek Bridge. It was one car — a car later reported stolen — that careened out of control, knocking a truss off its pillar. Its support lost, the bridge plummeted into the dry creek bed as if a giant foot had stomped it from above.

California Highway Patrol officials don't believe anyone was hurt in Monday night's crash, but there's no way to know for sure since the driver — and any passengers — fled the scene. The driver hadn't been found Tuesday, even after a helicopter flew overhead and a sheriff's dog explored the area.

"We don't even know who the driver is," said CHP officer Pat Hurton.

The car was speeding north on rural Rawson Road about 6 p.m. when the driver failed to negotiate a sharp left-hand curve just before the bridge, Hurton said.

The car hit a guardrail, then slammed into the truss. About half of the 200-foot bridge crumbled into the creek bed.

The car, meanwhile, slid down a bank and came to rest nose-down at a nearly vertical angle, Hurton said.

Tuesday, Tehama County public works crews attacked the collapsed bridge with bulldozers, tearing up the thin layer of asphalt and its wooden support planks. Dozens of neighbors gathered near the two barricaded drop-offs, some clutching cameras, others peering over the edge.

When she was 4 months old, 82-year-old Mary Alice Bosenko's family moved to a two-story farm house, complete with windmill and silo, that overlooked the bridge. She's lived there off and on ever since.

Bosenko said she was in her kitchen Monday night when she heard a car race by. Moments later: Bang!

Her caretaker ran outside to find out what had happened, then returned with sad news.

"He said, 'I hate to tell you this, but your bridge is gone,' " Bosenko said Tuesday. "I said, 'You're kidding.' "

It was, in a way, her bridge. She had driven over it countless times, and remembers things few others do — like the day decades ago that the bridge lay shrouded in a rare winter snow. She used to play in the shade of its trusses, and somewhere she has a 75-year-old photo of her brother and sister sitting on the edge of the bridge, their legs dangling over the side.

There were days when fewer homes dotted the rolling, oak-covered hills and the bridge was far less traveled. Recently, however, more people used Rawson Road as a link to Red Bluff, and many of them sped dangerously through the same curve that apparently thwarted the driver in Monday's crash, Bosenko said.

In 1988, a car crashed into the same support beam that was knocked over Monday causing the bridge to collapse. That time, however, the beam was merely cracked, and crews fixed it.

After several similar accidents, county roads officials had decided to replace the bridge, this time building it at an angle to lessen the curve on the south end, said Fred Botts of the county public works department.

"It was designed for horses and wagons," Botts said. "It was going to come down — moved or stored or whatever."

But the job was done for them.

Now officials must decide whether to build a temporary bridge — an expensive prospect — or go ahead with plans for a replacement bridge, a project that could range in cost from $1.5 million to $2.5 million, said Gary Plunkett, director of public works.

For now, residents will have to stick with a four- or five-mile detour.

The Red Bank Creek Bridge was the oldest in the county, Plunkett said. Two other truss bridges date back to about 1915.

"Things change with time," he said.

DESIGNING A SURVEY

This is a survey designed to learn about your ideas about pets in the classroom and at home. I hope to use the results in my Independent Project. Can you take two or three minutes to answer some questions for me? [INTRODUCTION]

1. Do you agree or disagree with this statement? "I believe it is a good idea for classrooms to have pets." [RATING QUESTION]
   (1) Strongly agree ________
   (2) Agree ________
   (3) Neither ________
   (4) Disagree ________
   (5) Strongly disagree ________
   (99) Don't know ________
2. Why? [OPEN-ENDED QUESTION]
   Write down responses on a separate sheet of paper.

We talked about different types of survey questions. Then designed our own surveys.

News and Thanks News and Thanks News and Thanks News and Thanks News and Thanks

- ☺ Thanks to Deneb and family for bringing snacks this week, to Jaron for sharing birthday snacks, and to Beth for Friday's morning music!
- ☺ Thank you to parents who have volunteered to drive on upcoming field trips. Thanks to our skating parents: Teri Casady, Ken Kushner, Pam Rose, Betty Scholin. We look forward to our trip to the main post office next Friday. Thank you advance for parents who have volunteered to drive! Unfortunately the ice at Vilas was too mushy so we'll reschedule our skating for Friday, February 5th. Same time. Same place.

- ☺ In math this week we learned about several types of survey questions. What are you doing your survey on? Will you use it as a source for your IP research? What types of questions have you included?
- ☺ We made a second trip to the library this week to learn about InfoTrac and Readers' Guide. Explain to people at home the steps you would need to take to find an article in a magazine about "Kites."
- ☺ How was skating at Vilas?
